Yarn B: cream, stripes	about 600 yd (549 m), an estimate
Yarn C: oatmeal, stripes	about 600 yd (549 m), an estimate

Yarn E: forest green, stripes	about 700 yd (640 m), an estimate

To find how many balls: divide by the length on your yarn's label and round up. The estimate is from the stitches and chains of this size at this gauge, with 30 percent added. To measure your own: work the test piece and measure it, mark the yarn where it begins and ends, pull it out and measure the yarn it took; divide by the area of the test piece and multiply by the area of the blanket.

Gauge

13 stitches and 11 rows to 4 in (10 cm) in half double crochet.

Check your gauge on the piece. Begin the pattern and measure the piece itself as you go. The center is the test piece: it should come to about 3.7 in (9.4 cm) square.

Before you start

- The blanket grows from a small square at the center. Each log is 10 rows worked along one side of what is already there; then the piece is given a quarter turn to the right and the next log goes along the next side, round and round.
- The ch 2 at the start of a row does not count as a stitch. Row 1 of every log is a right side row.
- Begin each log with a slip knot on the hook: join it with a slip stitch at the right-hand corner of the edge before the ch 2.
- Along row ends, work into the side of the stitch at the end of each row, two in the first and one in each of the next four, so that ten rows take twelve stitches and the edge lies flat.
- Cut the yarn at the end of every log, leaving a tail of about 6 in (15 cm). Work over the tails as you begin the next log.
- This size has a center and 24 logs, 6 on each side, and 50 ends to weave in.
- Colors of the logs

Finishing

- Weave in the ends: each end into stitches of its own color, on the wrong side, turning back once.
- Pin the blanket square, steam it lightly or lay a damp cloth on it, and let it dry flat.
- This blanket has no border, and every size given here is without one. To make it larger, go on adding logs in the same order.

In all: 25 pieces; 20,280 stitches; 50 ends to weave in.
