Gauge

16 stitches and 13½ rows to 4 in (10 cm) in half double crochet.

> The swatch. A test piece to measure and pull out. It is not the start of the pattern. Ch 25; begin in the 2nd ch from the hook and work 20 rows of half double crochet on 24 sts, about 6 in (15 cm) wide and 6 in (15 cm) high, and measure 4 in (10 cm) in the middle. Use a larger hook if your swatch is small, a smaller one if it is large. Ribs: worked sideways, 17 rows and 16 sts to 4 in (10 cm), so a rib of 5 sts is about 1¼ in (3 cm) deep. Single crochet (UK: double crochet): 18.5 rows to 4 in (10 cm).

Notes

- On a baby: sew every button on very firmly, and look at each one before every wear.
- The finished chest is 3 in (7.5 cm) wider than the body measurement at each size. Choose by the finished measurement you like; no fit is promised beyond the measurements given.
- The turning chain (ch 1 for single and half double crochet) never counts as a stitch. Work the first stitch of every row into the first stitch, at the base of the turning chain.
- Odd-numbered rows are right side rows, unless the words of a piece say otherwise. Mark the right side of each piece with a stitch marker or a scrap of yarn.

For your own crochet, gifts and handmade pieces you sell. Do not resell or share this PDF or copies of it.

- A decrease counts as one stitch.
- The ribs are worked sideways in back-loop single crochet (UK: double crochet). The body and sleeves are worked up from a long edge, one stitch in the end of each rib row. The rib draws in: it is a little narrower than the body above it.
- A row end is the side of the first or the last stitch of a row: work under two strands of it.
- The V-neck and the opening at the back together let the sweater go over the head. The two halves of the collar meet at the opening.
- Sew every seam with the yarn needle and yarn A, where no other yarn is named. The collar is sewn on in yarn B and the bow in yarn C.
- Color changes in rows: work the last yarn over of the last stitch of the row before with the new yarn. Cut the old yarn, leaving an end of about 6 in (15 cm), or, if it is needed again at the same edge within 6 rows and that edge is straight, carry it loosely up the edge.
- In back loop only: insert the hook under the loop of the stitch that is farther from you, and leave the nearer loop free.

☐ End	The 3 sc in one st turn the corner; the 2 sc in one st in the middle of rows 2 and 4 lie over the shoulder; the 2 sc in one st at the beginning of rows 2 and 4 and at the end of row 3 are at the tip of the narrow part and slant the end of the edging, so that the two halves meet below the point of the neck. Fasten off.

Assembly

1. Shoulders: lay the front on the back with right sides together. Sew the 12 shoulder sts of each side of the front to the 12 sts at the armhole end of the last row of the same side of the back. The 9 sts next to the opening on each side of the back stay free for the neck.

2. Opening edging: work it now, as written above.

3. Collar edging: work the edging of the left half and of the right half now, as written above.

4. Collar: the sweater is right side out, and each collar half lies on the outside of it with its own outside up. Seen from the back, the left half lies on the left and the right half on the right. The 9 free sts of row 10 of the half lie on the 9 neck sts of that side of the back, from the opening to the shoulder seam (the rows of the opening edging stay free), and the 14 row ends of its narrow part lie on the 14 row ends of that side of the front: row 11 on row 37 at the shoulder seam, and so on, down to row 24, the tip, on row 24 at the point of the neck. Sew the two edges together over and over with yarn B, st to st and row end to row end. Sew on the other half in the same way. Below the point of the neck the two slanted ends of the edgings meet in the middle of the front: sew the 4 row ends of one to the 4 row ends of the other row to row, with the long end of yarn B at the tip of the left half, and with what is left of it sew this seam down to the front with a few stitches.

5. Opening: lay the edging of the right back over the edging of the left back and sew its lower end down with a few stitches at the foot of the opening. Mark the place under each loop on the edging of the left back and sew the 2 buttons there with the sewing thread, so that the loops go over them without pulling. The buttons must hold a child's pull: sew each one on, fasten the thread off, and sew through it a second time with a new thread. A loose button is a danger to a baby: see that each one is firm before every wear.

6. Sleeves: count 14 rows (4¼ in (11 cm)) down from the shoulder seam on each side edge of the body, front and back, and place a marker there; this is half the top edge of the sleeve. With right sides together, put the middle of the top edge of a sleeve at each shoulder seam and sew the top edge to the body between the markers.

7. Sides and sleeves: sew each side seam from the marker down to the hem, and each sleeve seam from the underarm to the cuff edge. The stripes meet at the seams.

8. Bow: fold the tails piece in half, so that its two ends hang down side by side, a little apart, and sew the fold flat with the long end of the tails piece, in yarn C. Lay the middle of the bow over the fold and, with the long end of the bow, in yarn C, gather the bow across its middle with a few stitches. Wrap the bow band around the middle of both and sew its two ends together at the back with its own long end, in yarn C. Sew the bow to the point of the neck, through both collar tips and the front, with what is left of the long end of the bow, with many small stitches, and fasten the yarn off well. Nothing of it may hang loose or be pulled off by a baby: with what is left of the long end of the tails, sew down the two ends of the tails as well, with a few stitches each, so that no loop is left. All the sewing of the bow is done in yarn C.
