Special stitches

cl (Cluster): [yo, insert hook in the place named, yo and draw up a loop, yo and draw through 2 loops] 3 times, all in the same place, yo and draw through all 4 loops on hook. It leaves 1 cl for the next row or round.

beg-cl (Beginning cluster): Ch 3, [yo, insert hook in the place named, yo and draw up a loop, yo and draw through 2 loops] twice, all in the same place, yo and draw through all 3 loops on hook. It counts as a cl.

picot: Ch 3, sl st in the 3rd ch from hook.

Gauge

38 stitches to 4 in (10 cm) in double crochet.

About 19½ rows of double crochet to 4 in (10 cm). After rnd 3 the doily measures about 1 3/8 in (3.5 cm) across. If yours is larger, use a smaller hook; if it is smaller, use a larger hook.

Before you start

- Magic ring: wrap the yarn round two fingers, work the first round into the loop, then pull the tail to close it. Ch 4 joined into a ring with a sl st does as well.
- Every round is worked with the right side facing; do not turn.
- A beginning chain counts as the stitch in brackets after it. A ch 1 at the start of a round does not count as a stitch.
- When the next stitch or space of a kind is named, pass over anything else that comes before it. Work into a space round the chain, not into it.
- The sl sts at the start of a round carry the yarn to where the round begins; they are not counted.
- Join a new color with a sl st in the place named. Fasten off a color only where the round says so; where it does not, the same color goes on into the next round.
- A bud is one row, worked with the right side facing; it is rolled afterward.
- At the start of a row or round "same st" is the stitch at the foot of the chain you have just worked.
- In rnds 3, 4 and 5 of a rose "sc in next sc" is worked in the sc of the round below that lies between two petals.

Instructions

Chosen: Size 10 thread. Square brackets [ ] hold a repeat: work what is inside as many times as it says. Round brackets ( ) inside a line hold stitches that all go into one place. The count in round brackets at the end of a line is what that line leaves. Tick the box when a round is done. In UK terms sl st is slip stitch, sc is double crochet, hdc is half treble, dc is treble and tr is double treble.

Assembly

1. Weave in the ends of the doily, the roses and the leaves. Leave the two ends of each bud about 4 in (10 cm) long; they are hidden in step 2.

2. Buds: roll a bud from its first hdc to its last, right side outward, with the foundation chain level at the bottom. Cut a new length of 24 in (60 cm) of the color of the bud and sew through all the turns of the roll close above the foundation chain, 4 times from side to side in different directions. Stand it on the middle of a rose of the same center color (a deep rose bud on a deep rose, a pale rose bud on a pale rose), over the ring and the 12 sc of rnd 1, and with the same yarn sew its lowest edge to the 12 sc, one small stitch in each. Fasten off at the back. With the needle draw the two ends of the bud itself down through the roll to the back and weave them in there.

3. Places: rnd 13 of the doily has 40 sc. The roses lie on the 1st, 5th, 9th, 13th, 17th, 21st, 25th, 29th, 33rd and 37th sc, a deep rose on the 1st and then one of each kind in turn. The leaves lie on the 3rd, 7th, 11th, 15th, 19th, 23rd, 27th, 31st, 35th and 39th, two on each. Before you lay the leaves, stretch the doily out on a towel to its finished size, right side up, with a pin in every picot of the edge; the net is then open, as it will be in use. When the twenty leaves are pinned to it (step 4), take the pins out of the edge and sew the leaves; stretch it out once more in the same way to lay and pin the roses (step 5).

4. Leaves: lay two leaves right side up with their feet (the sc at the joined end) together on the named sc, one with its tip outward, one with its tip toward the middle of the doily. Turn the doily so that they are at the top of it, and lean both tips to the left by about a sixth of a right angle. The sc and the lean give the place, so there is nothing more to measure. Pin all twenty. On the stretched net the outer tip comes near the ch-6 loops of rnd 15 and the inner tip near rnd 10; a tip that comes out a round farther on is just as right. For each leaf cut a length of E three times as long as the way round it and 8 in (20 cm) more. Sew it down with one small stitch in each stitch of its edge that lies over a stitch or a chain of the doily. Fasten off at the back.

5. Roses: lay a rose right side up with the middle of its ring on the named sc. Where its petals meet the leaves on both sides of it, they lie on top of the side edges of the leaves; the feet of the leaves, midway between two roses, may be seen. For each cut a length of its outer color (C for a deep rose, D for a pale rose) 24 in (60 cm) long. Pin all ten and take the pins out of the edge. From the back sew a rose down wherever the 12 sc of its rnd 1 or one of its 6 ch-5 loops of rnd 4 lies over a chain or an sc of the doily: 2 small stitches at each such place, through the rose and round that chain or sc. Over a hole of the net there is no stitch. Carry the thread from place to place along the back of the rose. The petals stay free; those that lie on a leaf are not sewn to it. Fasten off at the back.

Finishing

- Weave in the ends that are left with the yarn needle.
- To block: wet the piece, lay it right side up on a towel and pin it out to size with every scallop and picot of the edge drawn evenly. While it is damp, lift the upper petals of each rose with your fingers. Let it dry.

In all: 11 pieces.
