Crossover turban headband

Woman, head 22 in (56 cm) · US terms

Finished size

About 21 in (53 cm) round and about 3½ in (9 cm) wide; the 21 in (53 cm) round is the length along the panels through the crossing, which takes up about 1 in (2.5 cm) of it, so the opening is about 20 in (51 cm) round

To fit a head of 22 in (56 cm)

Skill

Easy

Single crochet and chains in rows, two panels, two short seams

Yarn

Light (3)

Hook

Gauge

15 stitches and 16 rows to 4 in (10 cm)

In linen stitch, worked in rows.

You will need

Yarn: deep terracotta, light (3) about 120 yd (110 m), an estimate

Hook: 4.5 mm (US 7), or the size that gives you the gauge. Also: a soft tape measure, a yarn needle and scissors.

To find how many balls: divide by the length on your yarn's label and round up. Buy them from one dye lot. The estimate is from the stitches and chains of this size at this gauge, with 30 percent added.

Gauge

15 stitches and 16 rows to 4 in (10 cm) in linen stitch, worked in rows.

The gauge is measured on the first panel itself, laid flat and not stretched, when its first 10 rows are worked: along a row, which checks the stitches, and then across the 10 rows, which sets the size round. The lines printed under row 10 say how much each should measure. Every chain 1 of linen stitch counts as a stitch.

Use any hook that gives you this. If you count more stitches than this in 4 in (10 cm), change to a larger hook; if you count fewer, to a smaller one.

Check your gauge on the piece. Begin the pattern and measure the piece itself as you go. After row 10, lay the panel flat without stretching it and measure it along a row: it should be about 3½ in (9 cm) wide.

Before you start

- Measure the head if you can: put a soft tape round its widest part, across the middle of the forehead and just above the ears, and choose the size whose head measurement is nearest. The band stretches and its crossing gives: each size is made a little smaller round than the head it is for. The table of sizes gives both measures of each.
- The pattern is written in United States terms; the United Kingdom term stands beside each stitch in the list of abbreviations.
- The chain at the start of a row does not count as a stitch. After the turn the first stitch of the row goes into the stitch nearest the hook, which is the last stitch of the row before, and the last goes into the first stitch of the row before, so that every row has the same number of stitches; the chains skipped at the start of row 1 do not count either.
- The number at the end of each line is the number of stitches it has when it is finished; chains and slip stitches that are not named there are not counted.
- Whip stitch: hold the two edges together and sew them over and over, the needle always going in from the same side, through one stitch of each edge at a time.
- Linen stitch: every chain 1 counts as a place, so a row has as many places as it has single crochet and chain spaces together. A single crochet "in next ch-1 sp" goes under the chain, into the space, not into the chain; the stitch skipped is always a single crochet of the row before.
- Both panels are worked alike; both are folded in half, so the band is double all round.

Instructions

Chosen: Woman, head 22 in (56 cm). Square brackets [ ] hold a repeat: work what is inside as many times as it says. The count in round brackets at the end of a line is what that line leaves. Tick the box when a row is done. In UK terms sc is double crochet.

> Stop and measure now, after row 10. Lay the panel flat without stretching it and measure it along a row: it should be about 3½ in (9 cm) wide. Then measure across the rows: the 10 rows should measure about 2½ in (6 cm) from the beginning chain to the edge of row 10. This sets the size round: if they measure more, begin again with a smaller hook; if less, with a larger one. If the 10 rows measure right and the row is longer or shorter than it should be, keep the hook: the band only comes out that much wider or narrower.

Assembly

1. Weave in the beginning tail of each panel along its first row. Both faces of a panel look nearly alike, and either may be the outside.

2. Crossing: lay panel 1 on the table, its length running from left to right, its last row, where the long tail hangs, at the right. Lay panel 2 over the middle of panel 1, its length running from top to bottom, its last row at the bottom, so that the two make a cross with four arms. Fold the right arm of panel 1 over panel 2 to the left, until its end lies on the left end of panel 1: panel 1 now holds the middle of panel 2 in its fold. Take the top end and the bottom end of panel 2 and bring both to the right, the top end over the bottom end, so that panel 2 is folded in half round the fold of panel 1. The two panels hold each other like two links of a chain: both ends of panel 1 are at the left, both ends of panel 2 at the right.

3. Hold the two ends of panel 1 together in one hand and the two ends of panel 2 together in the other and pull them gently apart, until the panels gather where they clasp each other. Lay the gathers even with your fingers. From the clasp to its ends each panel is now double: its two layers lie on each other with their long edges level and no twist in them. The face toward you is the outside of the band.

4. Seams, at the back of the head: bring the two ends of panel 1 and the two ends of panel 2 together behind the clasp, without twisting the band, so that end meets end and all the long edges are level. On the outside of the band the last row of panel 1 now meets the beginning chain of panel 2. These two make the first seam: with the long tail of panel 1 sew them together edge to edge with whip stitch, 13 stitches, through one stitch of the row and one chain at a time. Turn the band inside out: there the last row of panel 2 meets the beginning chain of panel 1, and these two make the second seam: sew them together in the same way with the long tail of panel 2. Take what is left of both long tails through to the inside of the band, the side that lies on the head; these are the only two ends still to be woven in. Turn the band so that the outside of the clasp is outside again.

Finishing

- Weave in every end on the inside of the headband.
