Gauge

15 stitches and 8 rows to 4 in (10 cm) in double crochet.

Check your gauge on the piece. Begin the pattern and measure the piece itself as you go. After row 8 the piece, laid flat, is about 4 in (10 cm) tall. If yours is shorter, use a larger hook; if it is taller, use a smaller one.

Every size in the list has all its own rows and counts. For a width of your own, stop sooner or go on by the last two rows, with more repeats each time and every fifth row in yarn B: every two rows add about 2.3 in (5.8 cm) to the top edge and about 1 in (2.5 cm) to the depth.

Before you start

- The ch 5 at the start of a row or round counts as a dc and a ch-2 sp. The stitch that closes over it goes into its 3rd chain.
- A stitch worked into a chain space goes into the open space under the chain, not into a chain stitch. Stitches that lie before the space are passed over and left unworked.
- Where several stitches have one place after them, as in "3 dc in next ch-2 sp", they are all worked into that one place.
- What is in square brackets is worked as many times as the number after them says, in all.
- Row 1 is a right side row. Turn once between rows: the word "turn" near the start of each row is that turn.
- To change color, work the last stitch of the old color until two loops are left on the hook and draw the new color through them. Cut the old color, leaving a tail of about 6 in (15.2 cm), and fasten in a fresh piece each time: the yarn amounts and the ends to weave in are counted this way.
- About 35.7 in (90.7 cm) across the top edge and 15 in (38.1 cm) deep.
- 30 rows; every fifth row is in yarn B.
- A fan is 3 dc in one space. Laid flat, a fan with the ch 2 beside it is about 1.2 in (3 cm) wide.

Instructions

Chosen: Shoulder shawl. Square brackets [ ] hold a repeat: work what is inside as many times as it says. The count in round brackets at the end of a line is what that line leaves. Tick the box when a row is done. In UK terms sl st is slip stitch and dc is treble.

Yarns in order of use: A, midnight teal; B, old gold.
