Gauge

16 stitches and 13 rows to 4 in (10 cm) in half double crochet rib.

> The swatch. A test piece to measure and pull out. It is not the start of the pattern. Ch 25; begin in the 2nd ch from the hook and work 20 rows of half double crochet rib on 24 sts, about 6 in (15 cm) wide and 6¼ in (16 cm) high, and measure 4 in (10 cm) in the middle. Use a larger hook if your swatch is small, a smaller one if it is large. At the waist, where rows of single crochet (UK: double crochet) and of half double crochet take turns, both in the back loop only: 16 sts and about 14.7 rows to 4 in (10 cm). Measure the rows without stretching the rib. Armhole edgings: single crochet, 16 sts and about 18.5 rows to 4 in (10 cm).

Notes

- Women's sizes. The dress is smaller than the body and the rib stretches to it: around the hips from 2 in (5 cm) to 7¼ in (18.5 cm) smaller than the body, by the size; the waist is about that of the body. Choose by the bust.
- The finished bust is from 2½ in (6.5 cm) to 2¾ in (7 cm) narrower than the body measurement, by the size, and the fabric stretches to it. Choose by the finished measurement you like; no fit is promised beyond the measurements given.
- The turning chain (ch 1 for single and half double crochet) never counts as a stitch. Work the first stitch of every row into the first stitch, at the base of the turning chain.

For your own crochet, gifts and handmade pieces you sell. Do not resell or share this PDF or copies of it.

- Odd-numbered rows run from the neck down to the hem, even-numbered rows from the hem up. Work every stitch after row 1 in the back loop only, also the single crochet of the waist; the ridges run up and down the body.
- New sts: where an even-numbered row ends with chains, these are new stitches at the top. In the next row, after the ch 1 and the turn, work into each of these chains, in its back loop, as into a stitch.
- Where an even-numbered row ends with stitches left unworked, turn there: the next row begins at the last stitch worked.
- Single crochet is lower than half double crochet: the 24 single crochet of every odd-numbered row from row 3 on draw the waist in.
- "as worn" names a side of the dress as the wearer has it: her right, her left.
- Take a cotton yarn with elastic in it: the dress is smaller than the body and has to stretch. It goes on over the head.
- In back loop only: insert the hook under the loop of the stitch that is farther from you, and leave the nearer loop free.
- Length from the shoulder, without the collar 37 in (94 cm).

☐ End	The collar comes to about 6 in (15 cm) wide and 17¾ in (45 cm) long (24 sts, 58 rows). Fasten off, leaving an end of about 66 in (170 cm) for sewing.

Assembly

1. Back seam: with right sides together, bring row 111 to the foundation chain, hem to hem. Sew from the neck down, with a new length of the yarn of about 74 in (190 cm): 113 sts of row 111 to 113 chs of the foundation chain, st to ch. The foundation chain has 146 chs: the one that was skipped at the start of row 1 lies at the neck end; it is left out of the seam and not counted. Begin at the neck with the first st of row 111 and the ch that holds the first st of row 1. The last 32 sts of row 111 and the last 32 chs, at the hem, stay open: they are the slit, 8 in (20.5 cm) long.

2. Shoulders: with right sides together, sew the top ends of rows 11 to 19 to the top ends of rows 45 to 37, row 11 to row 45, the next to row 44 and so on (9 row ends to 9): that is the left shoulder. In the same way sew the top ends of rows 67 to 75 to those of rows 101 to 93, row 67 to row 101 and so on: the right shoulder. Sew each shoulder with a new length of the yarn of about 10 in (25 cm).

3. Left armhole edging; right armhole edging: work them now, as written above.

4. Collar: bring row 58 of the collar and its foundation chain edge to edge, the right side outward, so that the collar is a ring. Sew row 58 to the foundation chain, 24 sts to 24 chs, with the first part of its end; the ch that was skipped at the start of row 1 is left out. Begin where the end hangs, at the last st of row 58 and the ch that holds the first st of row 1. With the yarn needle go under both loops at the top of the st, then, straight across, under the strands of the ch that lie free along the edge, then under both loops of the next st and under the next ch, and so on; draw the yarn up after every few sts so that the two edges lie side by side and the seam is flat. The end then hangs at the other long edge of the collar. Turn the collar so that its right side is inward and slip it over the neck of the dress, which is right side outward: the right sides are together, that long edge of the collar is at the neck edge, and the collar seam is at the back seam. The first 12 row ends from the seam go to the half of the back neck up to the left shoulder seam, the next 34 to the front neck, the last 12 to the other half of the back neck. Stretch the collar a little to fit and sew it on with the rest of its end, loosely, so that the seam gives: it has to go over the head. Turn the collar up and fold it in half to the outside; the rib is alike on both faces.
